SHEDD (other spellings were Shead, Shed, Shade, Schade, Sched and others; some probably due to misspellings). Warner H. Shedd says Shedd's probably came from Alsace-Lorraine area in Europe..I don't know.

Here is the family history given Lillian by Ouida Leggett:

III. Tranquility "Quilla" Newton, b. 1840, per 1880 Census, b. in Ala., father & mother b. in Ala. and died circa 1922, buried in Bethel Baptist Cemetery West of Eucutta, Ms. md. 1) John W. ("Jim or James") Shedd, b. _____ from the Vossburg/Heidleberg area. Capitola Jones Anderson and Mrs. (Bura) Eliza Shedd Malone both told Lillian Shedd McMurry that Jim went to the Civil War, never came home and was presumed dead as a war casualty. Well, since the Civil War ended in 1864 and a son, John Crawford Shedd, was born on 1/12/1870, how can this be?

In 1981, Lillian Shedd McMurry found Ms. Eliza Shedd Malone and her daughter Mrs. John Clark (Mary Lou Malone Clark) of Brandon, Ms., then in 1982, found Mollie Shedd Eckleberry of Sandersville, Ms. who was raised partially by Tranquility and her 2nd. husband, Ben F. Barrett. Tranquility was the grandmother of Eliza and Mollie. Mary Lou Clark remembers when Tranquility died when Mary Lou was about 5 yrs. old.

Now, let Lillian S. McMurry tell you a true tale: For this see dated 7/12/1981 hereto attached and addressed to Lillian's sister, Doris Shedd Wells, and to Warner H. Shedd, Uncle of Doris and Lillian, same marked EXHIBIT # _____. See parag. 2, page 2 of letter for the amazing part, which was John Crawford Shedd's (Warren's) letter to Eliza re sending money to "Fluke" to help care for their mother, Tranquility. Said letter was written in 1920 and attached hereto marked EXHIBIT # _____.

Tranquility had son 1-yr. old per 1880 census. She was age 40
md. Ben F. Barrett
's first wife, Martha A. D. Barrett,
b. 7/22/1847, d. 3/1/1885,
buried Zion's Rest, Eucutta, MS
Martha & Ben had 4 children

Tranquility "Acquilla or Quilla" Newton Shedd md. 2) to Mr. Ben F. Barrett who had 4 children by his first wife, Martha A. D. Barrett, are buried at Zion's Rest Church Cem. west, northwest of Eucutta. The cemetery was established in 1872. In 1983, Lillian Shedd McMurry heard the sons went to Hattiesburg area but haven't checked it out. There were no issues born of this marriage; however they did take the motherless daughter of Willis "Fluke" Shedd named Mollie (b. 5/19/1902) to raise after her sister, Eliza, was unable to do so due to Eliza being oldest child and having much responsibility in raising the other children and looking after her daddy's housekeeping and etc.

In 1982, Lillian Shedd McMurry obtained information by obtaining a death certificate of John Crawford Shedd from Jefferson Co., Alabama, which listed that his mother was named Tranquility Newton, born Alabama, and his father was John W. Shedd, born Alabama.

Therefore, with permission of dear Mrs. Eliza Shedd Malone, who had known Tranquility as only "Grandmother" "Wife of Ben F. Barrett" and had tombstone made with that wording, paying for the tombstone by making crochet and selling same, Lillian ordered and paid for a matching stone with the full name of "Tranquility Newton Shedd Barrett" engraved but had to guess at the birth and death dates "ca. 1832-1922 (said dates being guessed at with the help of Mary Lou Malone Clark and Warner H. Shedd, grandson.) Then, after the tombstone was made by Walker Memorial Co., Laurel, Ms. and placed at the bottom of the first stone, Lillian found an 1880 Census of Clark Co., Ms., showing Tranquility to have been age 40 in 1880; SO she would have been born in 1840 instead of 1832.

Warner H. Shedd, still living in Inglewood, Calif. as of 12/14/1984 says he can remember visiting his grandmother "Quilla" at Eucutta and her coming to visit at her son's house in Sumrall, Ms. Both Uncle Warner H. Shedd and Bertha Anderson Roberts and Capitola Anderson thought Quilla's name was Quilla Gunter Shedd but no record of this can be found by Lillian Shedd McMurry to date. (Warner was mixed up about lots of things.

Julius worked as a telegrapher on the railroad when he met Grace. He'd been living at Sumrall, Ms. (see large family picture of the Shedd home at Sumrall in possession of Lillian S. McMurphy). After Julius and Grace married they lived at Purvis, Ms. where Julius work as Deputy Tax Collector and Deputy Sheriff under Mitt Williamson and John Crawford Shedd, Julius' father who was sheriff of Lamar County and during WWII rode a beautiful wild-like stallion. The second Shedd home was built in Purvis by J. C. and that's where Doris' and Lillian Shedd, Julius' children were born. Then after or around J. C. & Catherine's divorce, J. C. built the house in Hattiesburg as a consolation for Catherine. After she died, Julius and Grace lived there at 416 Mabel St. in Htbg. where Milton, Jr. was born. While in Hattiesburg, Julius worked for Hercules Powder Plant and the Clyde area where he started up or ran commissaries for Hercules and later was manager of the branch bulk plant of Standard Oil Co. Then the depression came and family moved to Canton where he worked in the Pearl River Valley lumber co. and then got into carpentering, becoming a member of the local carpenters Union # _____ in Jackson. He was a Mason, former deacon in Main St. Bapt. Church in Hattiesburg, which Grace joined after leaving the Methodist Church. Later they both became members of Center Terrace Bapt. Church in Canton and both were members of Crestwood Mem. Bapt. Church, Jackson, when they died. Grace was an Eastern Star in Hattiesburg, Ms.

J. C. "Warren" was a Macon, Ms. car dealer in 1920 (with his second wife) and they later moved to Birmingham, Ala. J. C. homesteaded 160 acres (as did one of Willis B. Jones' son's) close to the homestead of Willis B. Jones in Forrest Co., South of Hattiesburg, sometime after Julius was born in 1891 or to 1897 and sold the land sometime from 1905-07

At the time of his son, Paxton's, death, Tobe Carter lived in Klamath, Oregon as per write-up in Htbg. American paper. In 1984, his sister, Bess Carter Nelson,
of Jackson, Ms., says ^{Tobe} Carter remarried twice and had 4 more children.

Issues of Carrie Lee and Tobe C. Carter:

-Paxton Carter

b. / / 1912

d. 12/7/1941 in sinking of the U. S. S. Arizona at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii..at age 28.

However, newspaper write-up in possession of Lillian Shedd McMurry says "Carter, 22, reared by his grandparents, Mr. & Mrs. George Carter, was slain and etc."
Then, "survived by a "sister, Nelissie Kelly, a senior at Hattiesburg High School". It says further, "Carter had been in the Navy seven years, four of which were spent in Hawaii".

There is some error in the aforesaid:

He could not have been 22 years old when killed or he would have been only 15 when he joined the navy.. If his mother died during 2nd. pregnancy, then Paxton would have to have been 28 or 29 yrs. old.

Lillian has been told (not confirmed) that Willis
B. Jones was originally from Virginia and was a Confederate soldier who deserted and went to the Yankee/Union side & carried provisions for the Yankees. Lillian did find a record of a Willis
Jones, Co. F., 33rd Miss. Inf., Private, Capt. R.
J. Hall's Co., Hurst's Reg't, Miss. Volunteers, Muster in Roll at Grenada, Ms. on 4/21-22/1862, enrolled 2/22/1862 at Carthage, Ms. for 3 yrs. or the war, mustered and sworn 3/21/1862. Then, she found another service paper saying he was absent, Leake Co., Miss. absent without leave Nov. 1, 1862
and, further, another paper saying he was "arrested as deserter" and "See personal papers of Robt. L. Adams Capt. Co. Miss. Vol."...this has not been checked out yet by Lillian Shedd McMurry. Further, there are other Willis Jones' and Lillian is not at all sure which one is Willis B. Jones, her great grandfather. Folks who knew him at Eucutta say they do not believe he was a deserter.

The Willis Jones old Eucutta homestead is located South of Eucutta and a hill on the road is still known as Willis Jones' Hill, as per John P. Clark who was reared there & still has a farm just past the old Jones place. The land on the place was so "pore" that no living could be made there and Willis went to Perry Co. around 1888-1894 (Jettie died in 1893) and homesteaded 160 A. (1/4 sect.) before Perry
Co. was divided and Forrest Co. cut out of Perry.

The closest R. R. stop was McLaurin & Willis Jones' place was between Dixie Hwy and McLaurin. He later sold the land to John Crawford "Warren" Shedd and then J.C. sold the land to his wife, Catherine A. Jones Shedd who sold land then to John A. McLeod. McLeod had an architect named Herrin, father of Eva Herrin who married Warner H. Shedd, build a log house for him; said house still stands and picture of same is Exhibit _____, made in 1982.

Back when Willis Jones owned the land, an itinerant preacher named Jake wanted land to build a church. Willis Jones gave or allowed the use of land to Jake. Jake would let noone help him build the church, doing all the work himself; therefore, the church (now gone) and cemetery was named Jake Alone. Willis Jones and Mollie Shedd Jones are buried in this Jake Alone Cem. as seen by Lillian Shedd McMurry in 1982.

Willis B. Jones never remarried. Both Warner H. and Julius M. Shedd told Lillian Shedd McMurry that Willis, their grandfather, would walk to their daddy's, (J. C.) and mother's, Catherine A. Jones Shedd, house in Purvis, Ms. and, when J. C. tried to give him a ride, Willis would refuse, saying, with a scottish burr, "No, I'd rather walk; I might meet somebody to talk to.

Julius said Willis fought on the Yankee side in the Civil War, since Willis did not believe in slavery. (Doesn't this sound like someone from Jones Co., Ms., which tried to secede from Mississippi? Read the history of Jones Co.)
